The Centerville Elks opened their 74th football season with an impressive win over a tough Lakota East team last Friday night, 9-6. The Thunderhawks were ranked 7th in the 2022 Preseason Blitz 5 Top 25 presented by Tristate Football.com. The Elks defense, aka, The “Black Shirts”, held Lakota East to only 151 yards, 90 on the ground and 61 in the air. Led by Western Michigan commit, Joseph Jean-Louis’s 16 tackles, the Thunderhawks only crossed their 50 yard line 2 times. Lakota’s lineman, Austin Seireverid demonstrated why he will sign an Ohio State football scholarship this February. He was a force on both the offensive and defensive lines as well as handling the kicking duties. Seireverid averaged 46 yards on 4 punts, and 58 yards on two kickoffs.

Jackson Courville, 2021 All-Ohio 1st team kicker, put the first points of the year on the scoreboard with a 45 yard field goal in the first quarter. The offense had three drives stopped with two turnovers and a missed field goal attempt. Emable Wakilongo scored the first Elk touchdown in the third quarter and recorded his twelfth touchdown of his career. Junior Drake Wells made his first varsity start at quarterback. He completed 10 of 19 pass attempts, and 20 yards rushing.

Ross Coppock almost had a “pick-six”, intercepting a Aidan Troutman pass, and taking it back 55 yards to the Lakota East five yard line. He also forced a fumble and added three tackles for a great nights work. Matt Karpinsky recorded nine tackles and also played well on offense. Nic Bruder is the first helmet sticker recipient playing both offense, defense and special teams.

This Friday night, the Elks welcome the Shamrocks from Dublin Coffman on Wee Elk and Middle School night. Making the state playoffs has become a given for the Rocks, going to the playoffs 21 times and reaching the semi-finals twice in their rich football tradition. They are currently ranked 26th in Pasteur’s “Fantastic 50” and 39th in MaxPreps Ohio poll. They come to the “Black Hole” 1-0 after defeating St. John’s Jesuit Titans 14-7.

The Rocks and the Elks last met in the first round of the 2013 playoffs. Coffman, the 13th seed, pulled off a huge upset over the 4th seeded Elks 42-14. The boys are going to need a huge turn-out Friday night. Be there, great forecast, and.... GO ELKS beat the ROCKS!

Inside the Headset

What were your top three take-aways from the Lakota East victory?

1. We can't start slow!. Our defense is very athletic, fast, and violent. They were a lot of fun to watch. They get a lot of guys to the ball and even when one guy misses an assignment, there are others playing fast to get to the ball and make up for it.
2. Our offense needs to keep working. We struggled to run the ball consistently and we need to be better. Overall, we need better offensive chemistry and we need to mature at a very fast rate.
3. Our team loves to compete. It's hard to coach that and they definitely have that character trait.

What were a couple of key turning points in the game?

"Our defense was able to create some really big turnovers. Those were all key turning points in the game because it kept a very good Lakota East offense off the field. The blocked PAT by Joseph Jean-Louis was a big play as it kept it a 3-point game. Lastly, I think them jumping offsidelines when it was 4th and 5 from the 5 which made it 4th and goal from the 2.5-yardline was huge. It helped us score our only touchdown of the night."

You and the coaches emphasize how important hydration is, especially in this current part of the season. How big a factor was that last Friday night?

"Proper hydration/nutrition/rest is paramount for athletes if they want to play at their highest level. We had a few guys get cramps and so did Lakota East. If we want to win that part of the game, we absolutely must be better. It's all week. We have to be better in those areas or it will catch up to us. We firmly believe that."

You have personal experience with Dublin Coffman, having coached there six years. What is their football tradition and culture?

"I coached at Dublin Coffman from 2008 - 2013 under Mark Crabtree. It's an awesome school with great teachers and administration. I really enjoyed my time there and learned a lot. They have a great tradition of winning a lot of football games and creating great young men. They work hard, are coachable, and they're always tough."

What have you stressed in practice this week preparing for the Shamrocks?

"We have to pay attention to the gameplan and know it so well that we can execute it at a very high speed. Coffman will come after us on offense and defense in many different ways. We have to be fast and violent and we have to trust what we see. We have to do our job and be physical, otherwise we risk giving them an edge."

Who are their key players and what do they do well and how do you slow them down?

"Will Smith Jr. is a defensive end that is committed to Ohio State. He's very good and tough to block. Their offensive and defensive lines are what make them very dangerous. They get after you and let their skill guys go to work behind them. We have a tremendous amount of respect for their program and specifically the team they are putting out there this year."

THREE-STAR DEFENSIVE TACKLE, OHIO STATE LEGACY WILL SMITH JR. COMMITS TO THE BUCKEYES

By Garrick Hodge on January 23, 2022 at 5:44 pm @garrick\_hodge

Did you really think he was going to go anywhere else?

From the moment Ohio State officially extended an offer to legacy three-star defensive tackle Will Smith Jr. on January 14, it was only a matter of time until he committed to the Scarlet and Gray.

What seemed inevitable became official nine days later when he gave his verbal commitment to Ryan Day and defensive coach Larry Johnson after he made the 15-minute trek for an unofficial visit to Ohio State on Saturday. He announced his commitment to the public on Sunday evening.

"It's obviously something I've been seriously thinking about since they offered last week," Smith Jr. told Eleven Warriors. "But even before that. I wasn't focused on them as much as I was focused on the schools that had offered me but it was always something in my mind. So when it came, it just got real and I thought a lot about it and talked it over with my mom a lot. When I had a chance to get there for a visit (Saturday) and I was able to get some questions answered and just get a better feel for the coaches and the program.

"I just left there today knowing it was home."

Most Buckeye fans will remember Smith Jr.'s father well. The elder Will Smith was an Ohio State team captain and four-year letterwinner who finished his collegiate career with 167 total tackles, 46.5 tackles for loss and 23 sacks and was selected by the Saints with the 18th pick of the first round of the NFL draft in 2004. Smith Sr., who wore No. 93 at OSU, helped lead the Buckeyes to a national championship in 2002 and was an All-American and the Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year in 2003. Tragically, he was shot and killed in New Orleans in 2016.

"It means so much," Smith Jr. told Eleven Warriors about following in his father's footsteps. "I wish he could be here to see it, but I know he would be so happy and proud."

Prospect Rating Data: 247Sports

Smith Jr.'s offer from the Buckeyes was made possible by his own work ethic. After attending numerous OSU camps over the summer and later attending two Buckeyes games this fall, Smith Jr. was told by Johnson he needed to bulk up before the start of his senior season if he wanted to get an OSU offer. Smith Jr. put on more than 10 pounds of muscle and now sits at 6-foot-3 and 260-pounds.

The Dublin Coffman standout is the fourth Ohio State commit in the 2023 cycle and the second from Ohio, alongside Wayne offensive lineman Joshua Padilla. Smith Jr. is ranked as the No. 540 overall prospect in the class and the 71st-best defensive lineman, according to 247Sports' composite rankings.
